EVERY LIGHT IN BETWEEN

BY POL SOLÀ, GUILLE COMÍN

Arlo, a space traveller, has been stranded on an uninhabited planet for three years since his spaceship crashed. Despite his attempts to communicate with Earth, he remains stuck in space and isolated. Arlo is experiencing feelings of loneliness and hopelessness. He decides to live his last day continuing with his routine, before accepting his fate. On the peak of his favourite mountain, he has a profound experience that leads to an unexpected reunion with his beloved partner Milo and a realization about love and connection.
