

SECRET SAUCE

SECRETS DE MARE

BY ANDREA FERRANDO

Home-cooked fare reveals the relationship between a mother and daughter. Through conversations held over the stove, we are submerged in exquisite, day-to-day minutiae and the years slip by. The mother's recipes and secret tips written for her daughter become a posthumous testament, and the daughter's recreation of the dishes a eulogy to her mother. The dishes are cheeky, bitter-sweet, delicious, just like the mother. A piece of documentary spirit that tells a universal story through the little things in life.
