

ATLAS OF DISAPPEARANCE

ATLES DE LA DESAPARICIÓ

BY MANUEL CORREA

Atlas of Disappearance uses architectural technologies to follow the exhumation process of the stolen bodies buried in the Valley of the Fallen, the monument that contains the remains of almost 33,800 people. The documentary uses new digital technologies to provide evidence in three cases of relatives of the disappeared who seek to discover the truth. Silvia, 50, who leads the largest association of relatives demanding the exhumation of the remains. Sheila, a nursing student, who longs to recover her great-grandfather, while Fausto, an older adult, has dedicated his life to recovering the remains of his father, finally achieving it on August 20, 2023.
