

COCRETTES

COCRETES

BY SANTIAGO ALVARADO

After an argument between the owner of a bar and a client and friend, the latter is found murdered in the loft of the bar. The shock is even greater when it is discovered that the client was the bar owner's wife's lover. Things become surprisingly complicated when the clients who discover the body decide not to call the police and get rid of the dead man, due to pressure from the owner and his wife. What had become a possible crime of jealousy, will lead to a series of crazy deaths that will greatly complicate the outcome of the story. Fears, lack of confidence and jealousy are the basis of this story, which from a black comedy perspective will see the characters head towards a tragic end.
