

WEREWOLF

LLOBÀS

BY PAU CALPE

Adrià is a 17-year-old boy who lives from town to town with his older brother Ramon and his brother's girlfriend, Tona.

He is mute, he cannot stand closed spaces and finds it hard to keep his attention when he is spoken to.

Wherever he goes, everyone calls him names, throws stones at him.

For Adrià has a secret: on full moon nights he can't sleep.

And that is why the three of them go back and forth, wandering around in their van. On the run.
