

BALANDRAU

BY FERNANDO TRULLOLS

On the morning of 30th December 2000, thousands of skiers and mountaineers go out to enjoy the beautiful day and the abundant snow. Five friends set off on what was supposed to be an easy hike on a sunny day.

At midday, and without warning, the worst storm in the history of the Pyrenees is unleashed, claiming the lives of 10 people. The relentless fight against a monster of snow and ice, the determination to survive, the heroism of the firemen, friendship and love make the Balandrau tragedy an unforgettable survival thriller.
