

FREE FALLING

CAÍDA LIBRE

BY LAURA JOU

Marisol is the national rhythmic gymnastics' coach. She is methodical, controlling, demanding, and authoritarian. The World Championship is approaching, and she is pinning all her hopes for the gold medal on Angelica, the most promising newcomer on the team. Two weeks before the final, Marisol discovers that her husband is having an affair with a much younger woman with whom he is expecting a child. Marisol does not contemplate failure, so she begins a desperate race to win him back, disregarding his motives and feelings. Her pain transfers to the mat, where she becomes even more relentless with Angelica, in whom she places her hopes for success. At this point, winning the gold is all she has left. But is this really so?
