HIGHLY INFLAMMABLE

BY CHERYL WHITE

As teenagers growing up in turbulent '70s Britain, they were best friends. Then the music faded, the boys vanished and the political fervour waned, leaving behind a chasm of silence. Forty years later, in Brexit Britain, Jenny, who once thrived on rebellion and liberation, faces her most daunting decision yet. Should she resurrect her past by reconnecting with her estranged childhood confidant or does she risk reopening the wounds and conflicting interests?
