

TO LIVE IN A SHOUT

VIURE EN UN CRIT

BY DIANA TOUCEDO

Lola Sar, an architect working on humanitarian projects, faces despair and exhaustion in a troubled world. Her course changes when she identifies Fariha, a Syrian colleague, in a refugee report. Confronting her privilege and global powerlessness, Lola will embark on a path of self-care and historical reflection. To Live in a Shout addresses the existential crisis in a fractured environment.
